

What to bring ? Catalina Trip Packing List

This is a camping trip. Although the weather is usually fantastic (70's during the day) evenings can be chilly and activities continue rain or shine. Please pack appropriately. Be prepared for anything. The secret is to be able to dress in layers. Put names on all belongings, please!!!

Essential items - required pack in duffel bag or other easily carried piece of luggage old T-shirts and shorts (2 sets minimum) jeans, or long pants for evenings (2 pair) long-sleeved shirt (2)

warm jacket or vest
knit hat for warmth, ball cap for sun fleece or wool sweater (2) raincoat
underwear /socks (5-6) pairs pj's / sleep clothes towels - 1 bath, 2 beach, a hand toiletries
swim suits (2)
water shoes or tevas
sleeping bag
flashlight (please check your batteries) running shoes or light hiking boots flip flops for beach /shower sunscreen and lip balm sunscreen

Optional items - recommended pillow

sheet for mattress
sunglasses
board shorts
rash guard (shirt)
camera and film -
disposable waterproof cameras work VERY well
personal snorkeling gear

travel clock or alarm

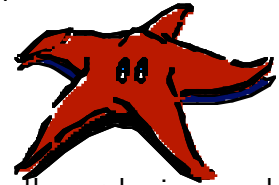

windbreaker

insect repellent

plastic ziplocks for wet items

small toys like footballs or playing cards for free time

motion sickness wrist bands

Wear on the trip to Catalina shorts / t-shirt / jacket and sweater

Carry in your day pack

something to read

your logbook

pencils and colored pencils

small breakfast snack

water bottle - bring your own small amount of cash

snack at boat terminal

dinner in airport on return gifts at gift shop

suggestion: $30 - $60 no more

Do NOT bring

knives of any type

curling irons / hair dryers

valuables

electronic devices - cell phones, ipods, radios, etc.

make-up or perfumed items*

gel or mousse*

gum, seeds, candy*

* these attract pests, esp. bees and ants to your cabin

Any questions? Please speak to an advisor. We've all been there before.

Average October Temperatures

Low 55° High 68° Ocean 62° check Catalina weather on the Web at:

www.catalina.com